ABOUT BUCK OUT CLEVELAND

Buck Out Cleveland is a dance organization and studio dedicated to offering technical dance training, performance opportunities, character development, audition preparation, and educational assistance to aspiring marching band auxiliary members at Historically Black Colleges & Universities (HBCUs) and dancers curious about pursuing dance as a career. We aim to ensure that youth who aspire to become professional and college-level dancers have access to the tools and resources necessary to thrive in the field.

ABOUT MVMT FOUNDATION

MVMT Foundation is dedicated to utilizing dance to build community, camaraderie, and connections among artists of color in the Chicago metropolitan area. Our vision is for Chicago to be illuminated as one of the nation's premier locations for dance training, dance instruction, and dance performance. We aim to captivate the dance industry and generate feasible career opportunities for aspiring dance professionals regardless of cultural background, racial inequities, or ethnicity.

OUR IMPACT

Through collaborative programming efforts, Buck Out Cleveland and MVMT Foundation successfully engage hundreds of dancers throughout Northeast Ohio and the Chicago Metropolitan community in dance annually. We strive to provide a low-barrier safe space girls and women of color to bond socially, release emotionally, and express themselves creatively through various styles of dance. Our vision is to cultivate confident, ambitious young women, resulting in increased community morale and fearless performers. Buck Out Cleveland and MVMT Foundation partner to host a MidWest dance event like no other: Away Dance Camp.

ABOUT AWAY DANCE CAMP

ADC is a dance program dedicated to providing in-depth training opportunities for aspiring dance professionals, including youth, teens, and adults.

Traditionally, ADC has been a four-day experience offering technical and nontechnical developmental sessions for aspiring dance professionals. This year, in an exciting development, we are bringing the camp experience home to Chicago and Cleveland, partnering with local organizations to make ADC Home a reality.

Hip-Hop and Jazz intensive with industry professional, Kaelynn KK Harris.

Heels intensive with international choreographer, Kyla Fajardo.

NBA Dance workshop with Jasmine Lee of Nxt Lvl Prep.

Partnership Opportunities

The event will take place over one weekend in June in both Cleveland, OH, and Chicago, IL. ADC Home offers a three-day dance experience featuring an evening orientation and mingling event on Friday, followed by full-day workshops and training sessions on Saturday and Sunday. With a focus on four distinct styles of dance – Industry Dance, Pro Dance, Majorette Dance, and HBCU Dance – we aim to provide comprehensive and diverse training opportunities for participants.

To ensure the success of this initiative, we are reaching out to potential partners like you for support. We are seeking assistance in the form of food, space, vendors, talent (speakers or Camp Facilitators), in-kind donations, and monetary contributions. Your support will play a pivotal role in providing our participants with a memorable and enriching experience.

WAYS TO PARTNER

Food: Providing meals and refreshments for participants and staff throughout the event.

Space: Offering suitable venues for workshops, training sessions, and participant mixers.

Vendors: Become a vendor and supply the event's educational resources, materials, or services.

Talent: Recommend / become a speaker or Camp Facilitator, inspiring and educating dancers.

In-Kind Donations: Offer products or services that can enhance the overall experience.

Monetary Contributions: Provide financial support, covering various expenses.

Dancers are provided with top-notch videos and photos, enabling them to share professional content showcasing their experience.

Dancers create experiences and memories that last a lifetime!
